

STATES' 4-H SUMMER HOSTING (INBOUND) PROGRAM

4-week Programs: JAPAN, SOUTH KOREA, COSTA RICA, TAIWAN, NORWAY

*Some programs may not be offered every year.

STATES' 4-H ACADEMIC YEAR PROGRAM

Host families provide an opportunity for high school students to spend an academic year in a host family. Participants are enrolled in high school and live with host families in various parts of the United States. Participants receive a stipend of $200 per month, plus travel expenses. Participants must be U.S. citizens and have completed at least one year of high school. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. The deadline for applications is late fall.

STATES' 4-H TRAVEL ABROAD (OUTBOUND) PROGRAM

Participants spend time abroad and immerse themselves in another culture! American youth delegates live with a local family and become part of a local community. Participants engage in experiential learning opportunities throughout their exchange. Participants receive a States' 4-H chaperone program, short-term medical insurance, and a national departure application deadline for late fall.

4-week Summer Programs: JAPAN, ROMANIA, SOUTH KOREA, COSTA RICA, TAIWAN, NORWAY

*Some programs may not be offered every year.

8-week Summer Program: 4 weeks of Japanese language and culture courses prior to starting the month-long program. Cultural excursions around Tokyo.

Academic Year Abroad: Spend 11 months in Japan while attending high school and living with a host family.

About States' 4-H International

States' 4-H International was established in 1974 to provide a national forum for 4-H members and leaders from all 50 states and the District of Columbia. The organization is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, and its primary purpose is to promote the 4-H program and its values among young people in the United States.
