

The UAF Faculty Senate passed the following at Meeting #185 on October 8, 2012:

MOTION:

The UAF Faculty Senate moves to amend the academic policy regarding undergraduate probation.

EFFECTIVE: Fall 2013

RATIONALE: Adding the summer session to the undergraduate probation policy will help clarify this policy. No change is intended to the disqualification policy which would remain as it is (referring to fall/spring and spring/fall semesters).

_____
President, UAF Faculty Senate

APPROVAL:  _____

DATE: 10/17/12 _____

DISAPPROVED: _____
Chancellor's Office

DATE: _____

*****

NOTE: The current printed version of the Catalog contains an error to the first sentence of this policy. However, the online version of the Catalog contains correct wording, which is used below.

Current UAF Catalog language from the online version, page 50:

PROBATION

Undergraduate students -- Students whose semester and/or cumulative GPA falls below 2.0 after each fall and spring semester will be put on academic probation. Students on probation may not ~~enroll in 12 credits a semester unless an exception is granted by the appropriate dean~~ with an academic driver to ensure an academic order for achieving a higher GPA, the driver is